Q18

The United States has in the past joined other countries and recognized global human rights that protect LGBT+ individuals at risk for and/or seeking asylum from genital mutilation, imprisonment, and/or death. If a vote came up, would you vote to support these categories of global human rights and the asylum provided by the United States that would protect LGBT+ and Intersex individuals?

No

Candidate comments (optional):

Stop voting for politicians who support Foreign aid

Q19

Some LGBT+ immigrants who are detained are not given access to appropriate healthcare and medications. Some transgender immigrants are misgendered and subsequently placed in incorrect populations. Support for these groups would include helping transgender immigrants obtain proper identification in relation to their gender identity. If a vote came up, would you vote in favor of immigration law that takes the special needs of these groups into consideration?

No

Q20

If a vote came up, would you vote to fully fund HIV/AIDS programs including education, research, and community outreach?

Q22

There have been recent threats to reverse the decision by the Supreme Court requiring government employees to comply with the law to issue marriage licenses to same-sex couples? If a vote came up again about this issue, would you vote to protect the Supreme Court's decision?

No

Candidate comments (optional):

I think we need to get the government out of marriage.

Q23

If given the authority, would you remove government workers from their jobs if they refuse to uphold the federal marriage equality law? For example, a county clerk who refuses to issue a marriage license to a same-sex couple.

No

Q24

If a vote came up, would you vote to protect or improve nondiscrimination legislation that protects LGBT+ individuals in areas such as public accommodation, housing, and employment?

No

Candidate comments (optional):

What a consenting couple does in their bedroom is their business.

Q25

If a vote came up, would you oppose anti-transgender legislation including so-called "bathroom bills," nondiscrimination policies, healthcare policies, and workplace protections?

No

Q27

Many transgender/gender non-conforming individuals have difficulty obtaining updated birth certificates after transitioning because the state of TN prevents changing gender markers on birth certificates. This can affect their ability to get a voter ID card that best fits their new gender. Do you think that the law should be changed so that transgendered citizens can register to vote using the identification that fits their gender?

No

Q31

Unlike the law in other states, Tennessee's Hate Crime Law (Tenn. Code §40-35-114(17): a) does not include gender identity/expression as a protected category, b) does not require that law enforcement collect and report hate crime data, and c) does not explicitly provide for law enforcement training on hate crimes. If given the opportunity, would you vote to revise the law and correct these three omissions?

No

Candidate comments (optional):

A crime is against body of property. Hate Crime is something invented by the extreme left as a way of increasing the size, cost, reach or power of government. Is that what you want???? More government.
